Information on Virtual Presentation ICSS & EUSER

Dear authors,

As a virtual participant, we provide you two ways of presentation in distance:

1. You can email us a poster as a resume of your scientific work and we publish it permanently on the event main website.

2. You can upload a video clip of 10 minutes and we publish it permanently on our new YouTube Channel.

ICSS YouTube Channel Video Upload Guide

Your video clip will help participants to have an idea about your paper.

Kindly follow up the steps for uploading your presentation video.

In order for you to upload a video to ICSS YouTube channel:

1. You need login your YouTube account. (you should have a YouTube account to do this)

2. Publish your conference presentation video to your own YouTube channel as usual.

3. Then, click on the below link video upload link:

https://www.youtube.com/playlist?list=PL8er7aaLQkGgz8n1lfvgfIWiDNpTZV1sr&jct=gm00LV5kSLFtjUprPk_1RahQ0Lqmiw

4. You will now see ICSS EUSER channel label on your YouTube page

5. Click on "Add Videos" bar on the right side

6. You will see a pop up menu with three options side by side. Click on "Your YouTube videos" bar.

7. Find your presentation video that you already uploaded in step 2 and click on it.

8. Click on "Add Videos" bar on the left bottom of the pop up page.

9. You have successfully added your video to ICSS channel.

Please note that, as a virtual participant, you will have all the privileges as in-person; your paper will be published in the proceedings book with ISBN, and in journal ISSN and you will have the certificate as hard copy delivered to your address. The term "virtual" does not appear in the certificate.

Should you have any queries, please feel free to contact us 24/7.

Thank you for the collaboration.

We believe that ICSS will be a better academic platform with your contribution.
